

Officer's Report Checklist
Darrell L. Ross, Ph.D.

- ✓ BWC as best objective documentation
- ✓ Describe Approach and Observations
- ✓ Call for Service or Self-Initiated, Other
- ✓ Describe Circumstances-Nature of Call
- ✓ Describe Operating Environment
- ✓ Describe type of crime
- ✓ Describe Subject Behaviors, Statements, Threats made, Appearance, and Condition
- ✓ Describe Types of Resistance and Threat Level (Immediacy of threat)
- ✓ Describe dangerousness and risk of flight
- ✓ Describe safety risks posed to subject, to officers and to others
- ✓ Describe subject's capacity to respond
- ✓ Describe Officer's Perception (Point of View)
- ✓ Describe role in incident
- ✓ Arrest or Protective Custody
- ✓ Describe verbalization used and De-Escalation techniques used/attempted
- ✓ Describe when Back-up; Supervisor; CIT and EMS were called and responded
- ✓ Reaction Time
- ✓ Force used in: Self-defense; Defense of Another; Effect an Arrest; Prevent a crime; Subject safety
- ✓ Describe rationale and Justification all subject control measures
- ✓ Describe rationale and Justification of Intermediate Weapons Applied
- ✓ Describe rationale for deadly force used
- ✓ Describe rationale and justification of restraints applied
- ✓ CEW mode, trigger pulls, delivered
- ✓ CEW Probe/Drive Stun Locations (note figures)
- ✓ Describe effectiveness of all use of force measures applied
- ✓ Duration restrained prone
- ✓ CEW applied while prone (Mode)
- ✓ Position after restrained
- ✓ Describe subject behaviors and monitoring after restraint
- ✓ Post-Restraint Resistance
- ✓ Decontamination of subject
- ✓ Describe medical attention provided (officer/ EMS)
- ✓ EMS on scene and treatment provided
- ✓ Describe subject injuries
- ✓ "Motorola Memory" (Radio transmissions at various incident intervals) [Construct a Timeline]
- ✓ Describe officer injuries
- ✓ Officer transport and designation; EMS transport and officer accompany

